

YOUNG LEADERS

United Way Young Leaders brings together the passion and philanthropic power of young professionals in order to improve lives in the Coastal Empire.

This is done by creating a positive impact in our community through our group's involvement in leadership education and professional development, active volunteerism, and philanthropic events.

Collectively this year, Young Leaders pledged a total of $174,523 to annual fundraising efforts.

Members are defined as United Way donors 40 years old and younger contributing a minimum of $365 OR 12 hours of volunteer service tracked through United Way Volunteers annually.

Benefits include:

- Access to high-level community leaders
- Networking with like-minded young professionals
- Growing skills through innovative professional development workshops
- Impacting the community through volunteerism
