If you have lost your job, had hours reduced, or need assistance with rent, mortgage or utility payments due to the COVID-19 virus, you may qualify for financial assistance through the City of Savannah's share of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act grant.

CARES funds will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis until the allocation is gone. The City has until Sept. 1, 2020 to use this grant. The allocated funds to individuals do not have to be paid back.

Individuals must meet the following criteria to qualify to apply:

- Must be a resident of the City of Savannah;
- Must be able to provide proof of loss of income due to the COVID-19 pandemic (from March 1, 2020 to August 30, 2020);
- Must be able to provide verification of current household income (receiving unemployment benefits, returned to work, new employment, SSI and SSDI, child support and alimony where applicable);
- Must be able to provide verification of past due rent/mortgage/utilities (copy of the most recent bill, copy of the mortgage statement, copy of the lease or statement from the property management company);
- Must provide identification for member in household applying for assistance.

For more information or to speak with a specialist call: 2-1-1, Monday - Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
